Welcome to UNSPLASHED - Ebook 1 written by photographer David Thrift of mudpix.com and self publisher of MUDPIX MAGAZINE, which features his own outdoor photography around Lake Harding and West Point Lake in Alabama and Georgia.

The purpose of this ebook is quite simply to provide you the viewer with a curated selection of awesome photography by very talented photographers at unsplash.com who submit photos that can be used for almost any purpose, including creating ebooks like this one.

I love creating photo ebooks, and I love discovering and checking out other photographer's work when time permits. Unsplash.com is a great place on the internet to do that. Unsplash.com's liscencing allows me to compile photo collections from participating photographers on it's platform allowing no strings use, and put them into this ebook series for you to enjoy viewing at your leisure and for free.

The overall result is a unique photo ebook you get to enjoy viewing, a catalog of the featured photographer's stock photography at unsplash.com up to the time this ebook was created, and some recognition for the photographer's talent. A project put together by a photographer who is a fan of photography for fans of photography.

In this ebook we will be looking at photography taken by Drew Dau who can be found on unsplash at <https://unsplash.com/@daunation>

There are 50 Drew Dau photos in this collection.
